Walking to reach the Santa Fe Train Station:

It is easy walking around downtown. The geography is flat, traffic is light and sidewalks are clean. The area is home to hotels, restaurants, retail shops, and condominiums.

Transit to Reach the Santa Fe Train Station:

An all day ticket for buses and trolley costs $5 + a one-time fee for a $2 Compass Pass. Our guests have found the buses and trolley to be clean, convenient, and easy to use from all the locations noted above. For more information, visit www.sdcommute.com

Hotel Pick-up may be available, particularly for guests who have a hard time walking. Read the Hotel Pick-up FAQ on our web site and contact us for questions.
